But now, I often wish the night

Had born my breath away.

I remember, I remember, The roses-red and white-The violets and the lily cups. Those flowers made of light! The lilacs where the robin built, And where my brother set The laburnum on his birth-day-The tree is living yet!

I remember, I remember, Where I was used to swing-And though the air must rush as fresh To swallows on the wing-My spirit flew in feathers then, That is so heavy now, And summer pools could hardly cool The fever on my brow!

I remember, I remember, The fir trees dark and high-I used to think their slender tops Were close against the sky It was a childish ignorance, But now 'tis little joy To know I'm father off from heaven Than when I was a boy!
