HOME WITHOUT A MOTHER. What is home without a mother? What are all these joys we meet? When her loving smile no longer Greet the coming of our feet; The days seem long, the nights are drear, | "Looking up!" said the And time rolls slowly on; And O! how few are childhood's pleasures, When her gentle care is gone.

Things we prize are first to vanish; Hearts we love to pass away; And how soon even in our childhood, We behold her turning gray, Her eyes grows dim, her step is slow, Her joys of earth are passed, And before we learn to know her, She hath breathed on earth her last.

Other hearts may have their sorrows; Griefs that quickly die away; But a mother lost in childhood, Grieves the heart from day to day. We miss her kind and willing hand, Her fond and earnest care; And O! how dear is life around us, What's home without a mother there?
