Choire Poetry. THE COUNTRY LASSIE She blossomed in the country, Where sunny summer flings Her rosy arms about the earth,

And brightest blessings brings, Health was her sole inheritance, And grace her only dower; I never dreamed the wild wood Contained so sweet a flower. Far distant from the city, And inland from the seas, My lassie bloomed in goodness, As pure as pure could be;

She caught her dewy freshness From hill and mountain bower, I never dreamed the wildwood Contained so sweet a flower. The rainbow must have lent her Some of its airy grace, The wild rose parted with a blush That nestled on her face;

The sunbeam got entangled in The long waves of her hair, Or she had never grown to be So modest and so fair. The early birds have taught her Their joyous martin song, And some of their soft innocence-She's been with them so long.

And for her now, if need be, I'd part with wealth and power I never dreamed the wild wood Contained so sweet a flower. public that he contin- THE CONVICT'S DAUGHT
