

of his malice aforethought did strike, beat, kick in & upon the head, breast, back, belly, sides and other parts of the body of him the said George Parkman & did then there feloniously, & fully & of his malice aforethought cast & throw the said George Parkman down unto and upon the floor, with great force & violence there, giving unto the said George Parkman then & there, as well by the beating, striking & kicking of him the said George Parkman in manner & form aforesaid, as by the casting & throwing of him said George Parkman down as aforesaid, several mortal strokes, wounds & bruises in & upon the head, breast, back, belly, sides & other parts of the body of him the said George Parkman of which said mortal strokes, wounds and bruises he the said George Parkman then & there in & at last died. And so the jurors aforesaid upon their oaths aforesaid do say that the said John W. Webster, him the said George Parkman in manner & form aforesaid then & there feloniously, wilfully and of his malice aforethought did kill & murder against the peace of said Commonwealth and contrary to the form of the statute in such case made & provided.
