

The beam. They then broke the door open.
 When they had got through with the door, they asked for the key of the Prison. I then asked for it, they said it was at the end of the hallway - it was not there - I asked the guard <sup>by the side of the door</sup> a key to see & I went down & came back & said it would run. The they came back & said that was not the key Dr W. said when we had taken the key away. We then went down stairs, Dr W. went down <sup>opposite</sup> of the office. We went down to a 15 unit in the laboratory - something was said about bones being found in the furnace. - I did not particular how they were affected in lower laboratory - after we had been in there some little time - nothing being said about the bones found in the furnace only to let them remain till coroner's day - then we went to stop door, & pieces of a body were taken out & laid down - the pelvis & right thigh, & right leg. When we went upon a board. There were
