

for water & when person, I think simply - offered it to him. He was so excited he could not drink. When I brought the water to his mouth he could not drink but spilled it on his clothes.

Perhaps I ought to have said that Mr.
Parker instructed the persons before they started for his house that they should not converse with him on the subject for which he was to be tried.

Mr. Parker I think did not go down to the Jail, but had some one take Dr W. in the office. He said to Dr W. that there had been some discovery made at the Medical College, and that we had come to see if he was willing to go down & make any explanation that he pleased. I do not recollect that Dr W. made any other answer to that than that he consented to go. He was taken into carriage. Leighton & I went in carriage with Dr W. & Parker & others went in another carriage.
Cummings was on the outside of
