

The carriage then which we were. It had opened an each seat of him to life him into the carriage. They had to help his feet into the carriage.

I noticed Dr W. was in much perplexity in the face of the

We rode together to the college. We all went up the steps of the front door. Dr W. was taken out & led up the steps. I discovered no apparent difference in him -

In the carriage on the way to the college Dr W. said very mutely to me Supton. I don't knew what it was. - He complained of being corrected in being in way; and of the manner in which he had been taken from his family that night.

We entered up the steps into the front door, and then into the lecture room on left side. I think Supton & Cummings were the persons who had hold of Dr W. Dr W. had come down with Parker & others, but I don't know what he was. They then went into the upper laboratory from the lecture room. My wife saw that the door was locked & broken open. This may not have been broken open, but I think it was
