

was found above up in paper - apparently was I never used. I saw it kind of one of the officers - I saw some articles of clothing to which no attention was paid.

We then went down stairs into the laboratory. - I came just across the conversation about lock place there. Every body has their key placed, and each dia blue they placed.

Then was an eagerness made for the key of the prison. Dr W. but it was hanging up on a nail. I don't recall of any thing being said about the key of the prison before we went down - I don't recollect whether that was said before we went down stairs or afterwards.
 - I don't suppose I took as much pains to examine the prisoners, as to be able to go on as others did. I must then in reputation of having official duty to do, and not charge my mind so much as others.

While we were in the laboratory the key was taken to the door & did not fit. The door was broken open by key division but the lock was torn up, but both were not done at the same time. - Some person present inquired about the cleaning which was hot, or heated, & it was
