

Dr W. came up & spoke to Mr. Blake, & told him that the fact he had of the disapproval of Dr P. he read in the evening paper of the next day. he said he had heard of it & that he would come & let his friends know there about that time he paid him 483 & some odd cents - that Dr P. took the money up & stated & said not to count it; that Dr P. told him he w^d go to Cambridge & discharge the mortgage. - that is all I rec^d being say. I left Dr W. then with Mr. Blake & home to teaching classes.

I said that to Dr W. again the day of his arrest.

On Monday 30th I was spoken by the college about the paper 4 on page 3. I sent Mr L. he told me he had examined during through the wall - that he had suspicions of Dr W. - he said he had told the officers that every place in the building had been searched except Dr W. private living. - said he was going to dig through the wall & satisfy himself & the public, & see whether there was any thing there. - While we were there talking he took me into inspecting some entry & told me that the wall had been lost. I put my hand on the wall - there was no heat there then - the same found a fine beam of the building & stored
