

- Capital "D" - little jog in it - two "y"s like
- Df - & the word "yours" -
- a small w like - has a peculiar turn -
- in genuine writing of almost always leaves
- the small "a" open at top - in this Seller it
- is left so - so in the words - in work
- of these words the connection has been made
- often heard.

obvious

I think the Envelope & the letter are in Df's hand writing - - The name of Francis

- Takey was written on outside by the
- same hand as I think - but not in same manner
- The Erasmus could not have been made
- with a finger - The letters in the envelope on
- inside remain perfect; and are copy of the
- Erasmus.

The letter No 3. - Post marked East Cambridge -

I have exp^d these letters before this time. I have no doubt that these letters are written by the same hand which wrote the other letters -

- Sent true by particular letters - but by words which strike the eye seem as -

- other writings The word "was" "the" "if"

- Capital "E" - "w" very striking to my eye. I mean the w beginning the word which - also

- the word "be"