

William V. Thompson - residence at East Cambridge Glen in the office of Dad.

I went to Dr W. home Sunday evening with Inez. It was about 6 o'clock I showed myself to the house then Dr W. was at home. We went to ascertain the date of the mortgage in which he paid the money fully. He seemed quite at ease as I went into his study. I asked him if he had about the time when the mortgage was given. He said if he would wait a moment or two he would tell us. He looked into a book that was on the floor, & in a few moments he would we find the papers he then remarked that he could give me the information in another way. He made few extracts from a book - a journal I suppose - he gave me the date of a mortgage, & promised himself immediate & said I suppose that is just what you want. I told him I wanted the date of the mortgage in which he paid the money the fully. He gave me the date of the mortgage, & stated that I should call on Paige, to see if the mortgage was discharged. Nothing of any importance further took place. - There was some further conversation which I did not notice - Dr W. said that he had called on
