

And in relation to this, it is peculiarly connected with double number made by Dr W. relative to same witnesses & find a line as the line of his arrest. <sup>Num.</sup> natural that he should do so.

2. The supposed peculiarity of Dr W.
and - his agitation and collapse on different occasions - as follows - being witnesses testified of by the coroner jury - of which it is supposed large additions will be made from different persons on the trial.

1. Sunday afternoon in his interview with Jos. W. B. Baker - p 16.
2. Sunday - after Sundown with Littlefield - p
3. Sandy evening, at Cambridge with officers Huller & Thompson p.
4. Monday morning - with Jan. Postman Blake
p.

~~5. at the~~

5. And more particularly at the fact ~~when~~ he was first informed of his arrest
6. And at Medical College when the remaining were exhibited to him.

* The. i there be any evidence of agitation, or of any peculiarity in the conduct of Dr W. except what comes from the fact of his arrest the Blair & Littlefield