

and has come in the full view of Con. Sec. 2 & been the 100 - 100 - an indefinite number of guilty men should escape the the the the the men should suffer.

In the midst of all the enlargement of circumstances existing - number the rule
 - act upon it - administer the law - it will be a better triumph than even one displayed in the suffering of which will upon the gallows in the scaffold -

For. Knappe case - how the Gov^t interfered to make further a new law which it was not supposed the law could be amended only as an accessory.