JOSHUA L. BROWN, HENRY I. GLOWACKI.

Batavia, July 22 1850.

Dr. Sir

Though an entire stranger to you & to Dr. Webster I have taken some interest in his case.

The enclosed statement recently attracted my attention and I therefore send you the same with a few suggestions.

I am of course unable to see what precise bearing as evidence either for or agt. the Dr. the notes mentioned will or can have - but what I desire to call attention to is the mode in which the evidence was obtained. (as stated in the newspaper.) If the newspaper account be true that the agents of the prosecution went to the Dr's house and searched his private
