

The following, in which will be found insist, why, there's an end of the matter; for their sons to be independent, practical far-sion: "I now commend you, fellow-citizens, to FIRE AT CULPEPER COURT HOUSE. some useful hints to the farmer, is taken we all admit that from an address delivered before the Queen's tural journal in New York city:

If there be any radical mistake in your "So does your horse excel a common one, agricultural economy, a transient observer In shape, in courage, color, pace, and bone." seems accustomed to go annually for apos- for themselves a character for sober and Tell him then to tles, if not for examples, to enlighten us in like groupstoness be induced to men, in "Plough deep, while sluggards sleep, the agricultural art. There, Agricultural So-like circumstances, be induced to improve cieties, after full deliberation, and with the the appearance and comfort of their humble express sanction of such wise counsellors as residences, by planting vines and shrubbery, the late John Lowell-clarum venerabile and otherwise causing them to present that nomen—have expressly refused to offer pre-aspect of neatness, which every passer-by miums for horses of any kind—esteeming would regard with admiration, as signs that them the most expensive of all machines, rarely deceive, of more than ordinary merit animate or inanimate, employed in the busi- and rectitude on the part of the inmates? ness of the farmer.

As to the ox—they contend that he costs the suggestion that such simple adornments and his horns.

I am not unaware that your reasoning is, "Soft roll your incense, herbs, and fruits and flowers, mail, once a month, is submitted. and presume not to dispute its force, that In mingled clouds to Him whose sun exalts, you have to keep a span of horses any how, Whose breath perfumes you, and whose pencil for your family to go to town occasionally, and to church on Sunday; and you tell me And here the way opens for me to fall. that the ladies could not be reconciled to for the occasion, into the track of one of tempts be made, they will be resisted at any and all the use of these long-eared, hard-headed my eloquent predecessors, though prudence beasts! Well, this may be so; and far be would warn me not to call up in contrast should be distinctly associated by the United States. While existing rights where the contract of every European nation should be respected, "it Barley it from me to refuse you credit for thus con- with my own, the classical and brilliant since sulting their taste and their wishes. Doubt- performances of any of those who have gone so less it is but one example of universal sub- before me on similar occasions. Yet my mission on Long Island to the same resist- sincere anxiety for the honor and prosperiless influence. But you must allow me to ty of every one who lives by the plough, tinent." add that I hardly ever met with a house- prompts me to quote for your recollection wife who, if her "lord and master" would this remark of the Hon. Senator DICKINSON, only condescend to enter into a minute and of New York: "And is it not," said he, frank explanation of his views and situation, "lamentably true, that the extreme doctrine the 1st of October last, was $17,075,445 52. would not cheerfully make any reasonable of rewards and punishments, which has sacrifice of pride, or fashion, or personal in- practically obtained, by general consent, for portance of making suitable modifications and redulgence to promote their common good. the last few years, and has been upheld and ductions of the rates of duty imposed by the present $3.50 for hogs weighing 200 pounds and ed her he left her supplies of money. On her house servant, and her dairy maid, and pensing of patronage, has done much, very He further recommends even her cook, to go out to help him on the much to withdraw men from the sober purfarm! Ay, I have seen her pull off her very suits of industry, and induced them to em-sumed, arbitrary, and false values, of specific duapron to be used by the seedsman in sowing bark their little all upon a sea of political ties, and the substitution in their place of ad vahis grain! And besides, after all, this anti-troubles? To forego the cultivation of the lorem duties," with proper discriminations and declared a dividend of three per cent. for Stag Hall, Tom and Ab'm, the other day, while pathy to driving mules is but a national pre-little farm, where peace and plenty are the guards against frauds in collection. judice—an opinion; but opinion, it is said, sure rewards of industrious and frugal habits, For the safety of the public moneys a Constituis the queen of the world. For an illustra- to gain a precarious subsistence by hanging tional Treasury is recommended, and that all Extion, look at Spain, the very home of the upon the skirts of party; politicians by trade, ecutive discretion or control, except such as may superb Andalusian horse. There the royal and office-seekers from principle." "If," be necessary in directing its disbursements in pura half per cent. family and the grandees monopolize the added he, "government seeks to entrench" privilege of driving mules-a privilege al- itself about with office and patronage, and "Where the lady 's in the case, All other things give place.

editor of the American Farmer, who is thing of that spirit of chivalry which at once In the best days of the Roman Republic, harmony and wisdom of your counsels." writings, well known to most of our read Island—like the horse of Adonis, described

The nerves that join'd their limbs were firm and strong,

The Hon. John W. Davis, of Indiana, has been elected Speaker of the House of Representations. ers. Mr. S. is now conducting an agricul- by Shakspeare, in the universality of his Their life was healthy, and their age was long;" knowledge:

More than mistaken—even wicked—is less to raise—is easier to break—lives on of his cabin are unsuited to the condition coarser food—consumes less—for gearing, of the laboring man! Rather let the poor—Through the politeness of the Hon. John G. ed and unsettled state. On the arrival of lin to the New York Tribune says: shoeing, and grooming, cost almost nothing est be encouraged to construct, of hewed Chapman, we received last evening, President the news by the Britannia, holders advanced, -and is ever ready for his work. That, posts, the rudest sort of bower about his Polk's annual message to both Houses of Conwhile the horse is every day lessening, the door. Nature will kindly assist him to gress. The following is a brief synopsis of the ox is every day improving, in value—is ex- cover it with the honey-suckle and the jes- leading subjects recommended: empt from diseases—and is even more valu- samine, that ask but little care; and, then,

And, then, as to the mule—in strength The poor girl's pathway and the poor man's door:" prompt action of Congress to consummate the ansubmit to a decline, and operations have energetic action. But I need not detail fully equal to your light lands—the planter of the south, and the farmer of the south, and the farmer of the south.

States. He treats at some length upon our relationships traveller as he passes.

States. He treats at some length upon our relationships the south of activity and decline both in the flour and within eight weeks of STARVATION? But of activity and decline both in the flour and the sweet of starvation. and, therefore, the capital in that heavy item sphere of this Society's influence, even the Three several attempts, previously to the fourth grain markets in New York has materially oh, help! ye who can! Fathers, mothers, is only to be half as often renewed. I think poorest show signs of melioration, and par- of March last, to settle the Oregon question by ne- unsettled the market there, bringing both sel- sisters, brothers—friends of humanity, chilit's in the "Pickwick Papers" that Sammy take of the common refinement. Were it gotiation, upon the principle of compromise, had lers and buyers to a comparative pause.— dren of a common Father, your brothers and Veller asks the coachman, "Did you ever not that I dislike to appeal to all sinister proved unsuccessful. With the conviction that no Some scarcely knew what to ask, while sisters are starving! Here I leave the ensee a dead donkey?" "No." "Did you motives, in a case which so forcibly address-compromise, which the United States ought to accept, can be effected, "the proposition which had the compromise of the better feelings of our nature, cept, can be effected, the proposition which had the compromise of the "No!" "Did you ever see a man that had I might add that your kindness would be been made and rejected, was, by my direction, subseen any other man that ever saw a dead remunerated in the improved value of your sequently withdrawn, and our title to the whole of short of those of last week. donkey?" "No!"—And yet, gentlemen, I district, for it would then possess superior Oregon territory asserted, and, as is believed, maindo not maintain that the life of this hybrid attraction for the very sort of people whom tained by irrefragable facts and arguments." He if any man would make him a gracious gift Island. Nature formed them for such offi-without violation of said convention, be adopted for in that city, via the canal, during the last city: of a full set of horses, on setting out in life ces; and he that invokes not their smiles on the extension of laws over our citizens in that teras a young farmer, and require him to keep every good undertaking is lamentably igno-ritory; and says, "At the end of the year's notice," most prohibited to the plebians. There are relies for its strength on its parisites and now several teams on the mail line along place-men and not upon the affections of on the public lands, and a repeal of the present the rich valies of the Shanandoah! But to the people, it cannot win by its justice, tho' system of managing mineral lands, are recomcome nearer home—in sight of this town, for a time it may terrify by its power." I mended. my friend, Mr. Millhaud does, with a pair mean no more than he did, to make any but The Army and Navy are spoken of in most dwellings for the increased number of ope-does, says Ab'm, grinning his ivories. Becase dey's of mules, all the labor and hauling for his a general application of these remarks. In flattering terms. farm, on the margin of your extraordinary more than a quarter of a century that I have The income from the new postage law is inadeprairie, which stretches around for so many been laboring with my pen in the cause of quate to meet the expenses of the Department, and miles, and which, I learned with surprise, is the plough, I can safely say that never has he invites the attention of Congress to the modiabandoned to pasturage—its bosom never a word been penned, or by me been permit-fications suggested by the Postmaster General.

Nevertheless, gentlemen, I presume not plore the increasing disposition of young appropriate division of duties among them. to say that you have not good and sufficient men to abandon industrial pursuits for a reason for deciding in favor of the more slavish dependence on the capricious breath active, sightly, short-lived, voracious, ex- of power, so that now, addressing myself to of Gen. Jackson, he closes with the following rubbed gently with a linen rag dipped in D. C., to MARGARET H. MORTON, of Poplar pensive and inedible horse. If the ladies those who are themselves, and who desire language, used by the General on a similar occa. the above composition.

mers, I hold it to be my sacred cuty to ex- the guidance of Almighty God, with a full reli- The subjoined account of a conflagration at hort you to discourage all such enervating ance on His merciful providence, for the mainten-Culpeper court house, in Virginia, we find County Agricultural Society, held at Hemp- And there's no use in looking for other a small corner of your farm and persuade application, that whatever errors it may be my lot and miserable inclinations. Rather cut off ance of our free institutions; and with an earnest ir no doubt, through his many agricultural produces and is produced by a passion for ere luxury had enervated her people: when it was by the addition of two acres of land a country discharged its obligations to its We were shown a letter the other day spreading with fearful rapidity. It has allike myself, not fully initiated in all the realist ball Small as are your farms, generally, compar one thing more I will venture to suggest. Income of the last sons that control your practice, might be led to inquire how it is that you seem to give to inquire how it is that you seem to give to inquire how it is that you seem to give to have been accustomed to or the virtues of a Cato. Teach your son, paighborhood. It appears a young man sener court house will be consumed. Court almost exclusive preference to horse over see in the South, they must yet be tilled, in then, rather to till his two acres, than give neighborhood. It appears a young man, peper court house will be consumed. Court ox or mule power, for the plough, for heavy a great measure, by hired force, such as up his life to a wretched alternation of hope whose farm is adjoining his, went to Balti-house, clerk's office, and several other buildwork on the farm and for transportation on your neighborhood affords. Is it not, then, and fear, of getting and losing place. Let timore a short time since for the purpose ings, in great danger. your excellent roads? exactly reversing, in a matter appealing as well to your interest him remember that "a ploughman on his of laying in his winter supply of clothing this respect, the habits of the sagacious fartaken to confer some honorary distinction it may be shall never starve for his servants—while there he bought stances so nearly resemble your own to all in the way of encouragement on laboring for at the workingman's door hunger looks some second-hand clothing, which, it is appearance, and to which State, New York for themselves, a character for solves a character

And you shall have corn to sell and to keep."

THE TIMES.

PORT TOBACCO, MD.

THURSDAY MORNING, DEC. 4, 1845.

THE MESSAGE.

for giving that notice, we shall have reached a presame business on a large scale, with uncom- For the ladies, themselves, where is the riod when the national rights of Oregon must either mon sagacity and circumspection, lately told mansion or the cottage in Hempstead, or its be abandoned or firmly maintained. That they can production of grain in the United States for about 24 years of age—very pretty, and showed all the indications of grain in the United States for about 24 years of age—very pretty, and me the same thing; and I have understood vicinity, that does not display more or less not be abandoned without a sacrifice of both nafour years, according to to the returns isshowed all the indications of gentle breedthat when Mr. John Ridgely, of Hampton, of the refinement which the love of flowers tional honor and interest, is too clear to admit of sued from the office of the Commissioner bors on her arrival, but they soon became succeeded to that magnificent estate, there indicates; and, which, when once it breaks doubt." For the protection of emigrants a suitable of Patents, is as follows: was in one of his father's wagons an entire out, spreads with a natural and wholesome number of stockades and block-house forts are reteam that had worked together for twenty- contagiousness over a whole community, commended to be erected along the usual route: Wheat prompting us all to unite in the apostrophe: and the practicability of establishing an over-land Barley

He protests against the interferrence of European Rye governments, to preserve a "balance of power," on Buck wheat the North American continent. Should such at- Indian Corn 377,531,875 should be distinctly announced to the world as our Oats settled policy, that no future European colony or Rye dominion shall, with our consent, be planted or Buck wheat established on any part of the North American con- Indian Corn 494,618,305

The balance in the Treasury, on the 1st of July last, was $7,658,306 22.

The amount of public debt remaining unpaid on bushels.

He invites the attention of Congress to the im-How often does the wife lend her husband justified by all parties who have had the dis- Tariff laws, and recommends a revenue standard. upwards; but as it is yet early in the sea- the 21st ult. she fell a victim to her relentsuance of appropriations made by law, be removed.

having been marked with the traces of the ted to be published, of a partizan character; The increase of public business in some of the stead, L. I., last October, by John S. Skinreasons, when one is all-sufficient—else I them to seek an honest livelihood, however to commit in discharging the arduous duties which beats and smith attribute warr predilection to commit in discharging the arduous duties which beats and smith attribute warr predilection to commit in discharging the arduous duties which NER, Esq., the former able and talented might attribute your predilection to some-homely, by the sweat of their brow.

In the least attribute your predilection to some-homely, by the sweat of their brow.

In the least attribute your predilection to some-homely, by the sweat of their brow.

In the least attribute your predilection to some-homely, by the sweat of their brow.

In the least attribute your predilection to some-homely, by the sweat of their brow.

In the least attribute your predilection to some-homely, by the sweat of their brow.

In the least attribute your predilection to some-homely, by the sweat of their brow.

dy, as the servants, after a few days wear purchase of the only territory not belongof these garments, were violently attacked ing to the American Colonies, between Cape with small pox. We would caution per-the coast of about 300 miles. In the proout of the infected parts of the city, as this posed purchase is included the famous disease is of a highly contagious nature, and that if brought to a small place often goes through the whole of its inhabitants.

We learn from the Patriot that the Baltitheir prices from 50 to 62 1-2 cents on the and whatever may be done in the interim barrel, which advance was obtained for a here to avert its evils, immense suffering able dead than alive, being in every part and what so sweet as his own sweet briar, which, of congratulation for the prosperity and happiness ropean market not warranting these advanction. I helieve it of the country. He strongly recommends the properties of Congress to consummate the and

THE FLOUR TRADE.—The Albany Argus to them. is everlasting; but I do know that the late all would be most ready to welcome. In recommends that Congress give a year's notice, as of last week says the Basin at Albany is General Ridgely, of Hampton, Maryland, this work of charity, I undertake to answer required by the convention of 1827, of the termina-really a sight at the busy winding up of one Mysterious.—The Richmond Times, who owned large iron works, employed be- for the hearty co-operation of every good tion of the joint-occupancy of Oregon, and to de- of the most business seasons ever known (Va.) has the following notice of the death tween fifty and a hundred, once told me that housewife and every fair daughter on Long termine what legislation can, in the mean time, there. The quantity of flour which arrived of a lady, which occurred recently in that

84,822,272 4,161,504 123,071,341 18,645,567 3,230,721 145,920,666 24,269,281

DIVPDENDS,—The Bank of Baltimore has The following passed between the two waiters of the last six months.

The Westminster (Md.) Bank has de- Uncle Tom, I wants to ax you dis, Why is de Stag clared a semi-annual dividend of three and Hall gentmen like de odd-trick in a sartin game uv

IMPROVEMENTS AT MOUNT SAVAGE, - I does, sartin, says Tom, after repeated attempts at The granting of pre-emption rights to settlers The Cumberland Civilian says the Mount guessing. Why, becase dey's good for de game. Savage Company are about erecting an ad- Well, Ab'm, says Tom, since you's so smart, ditional rolling mill and seventy or eighty ginger cake? I speck you gives dat up. Well I

> MILES GRAY has been sent to the Penitentiary in Alabama for challenging a man to mortal combat.

but I have lived long enough to see and de-public Departments, he thinks, demands a more gether in a phial two ounces of essence of of the Hon. Daniel Jenifer. lemon, one ounce of oil of turpentine. On Thursday, the 20th ultimo, by the Rev. Mr. After paying a tribute to the death and memory Grease and other spots in silk are to be Abercrombie JOHN H. SMOOT, of Georgetown, in the Richmond Whig of Friday last. That

CULPEPER COURT HOUSE, Nov. 26. 5 o'clock, Wednesday morning. GENTLEMEN: The centre of Culpeper been elected Speaker of the House of Representa- court house is now wrapped in flames. The fire caught about 4 o'clock at the Fairfax Hotel, kept by Samuel Decamp, and is now Colonization.—We learn from the N. Y. Journal of Commerce that the sum of slave mart of the Gallinas. Only $3,000 more is required to effect this great object; and without this additional sum, the $17.-000 already subscribed is not binding.

FAMINE IN IRELAND.—A letter from Dub-

Ere this letter shall have reached you, the famine will actually have commenced, tire matter, mournful as it is, for the prohearts to do unto others as they would under reversed circumstances have others do week, exceeded that of any previous week. A lady representing herself as Mrs. Agnes up the stock, he would reject the offer. Mr. rant or regardless of the best means of suc-should Congress think it proper to make provision It was within a fraction of 180,000 barrels. Thompson, from Philadelphia, not long since arrived and took up her abode in the GRAIN OF THE UNITED STATES -- The lower part of the city. She was youngacquainted with her. She soon fell ill-Bushels-1840 Bushels-1842. her disease consumption; but the kindness 102,317,340 of her neighbors mitigated as far as possible 3,874,622 the horrors of her condition. She had 150,883,617 with her two young children, a son and 22,762,953 daughter. Her neighbors of course felt a 9,483,480 natural curiosity to learn something of her 441,829,246 history, but all they could learn from her Bushels-1843 Bushels-1844 was, that she had been attached and engag-95.607.000 ed to a gentleman when a girl; that her 3,627,000 parents objected to the match, and that she 172,247,000 afterwards married another. While in her 26,450,000 last illness, a gentleman visited her several 9.071.000 times under circumstances of great mystery. 424,954,000 He entered the room on one occasion while The wheat crop of the United States for one of the neighbors was present. As soon the present year is estimated at 125,000,000 he endeavored to conceal his face—walked as he discovered the presence of a stranger, up to the bed, kissed the sickly lady, asked Pork.—The Zanesville (Ohio) Gazette her some questions, when the neighbor not says that pork packers there are giving the room. Whenever this gentleman visitson, very sew hogs have been slaughtered. less disease, leaving two small children dependent upon the charities of neighbors.

> cleaning up the old hall. Tom is about fifty years old, and Ab'm about 17-both Afric's sable sons.

cards when bofe's in de nine-hole? Tell me dat, and you am de science. You gives it up, does you? Yes good for a scent. Yah, yah, yah.

MARRIED,

On the 23d ultimo, in Charles county, Md., by the Rev. Mr. Todd, WILLIAM T. BARTON, TO TAKE STAINS OUT OF SILK.—Mix to- Esq., ef Virginia, to MARION ELIZA, daughter

Grove, Charles county, Md.