

Emory (constable at Dover,) but do not recollect his Christian name — I will make every enquiry respecting your Teoman, having several persons on the alert I hope, we may gain some information, I have offered Emory one hundred dollars for each of my servants, & also left a description with the Sheriff in Dover, who has promised to give me information in case they should be taken —

Yours Very Respectfully,
P. S. C. Pascault
