

ORDINANCES.

PASSED EXTRA SESSION, 1831.

No. 1.

An additional supplement to an Ordinance relative to Dogs.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted and ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That from and after the passage of this ordinance, it shall be the duty of the City Bailiffs, in conjunction with such persons as may be employed by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, to take up every animal of the dog kind which shall be found going at large in the City of Baltimore, without being muzzled, so as to prevent the possibility of his or her biting, and convey him or her to some place to be designated for that purpose by the Mayor. Bailiffs duty.
Dogs taken without muzzle.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted and ordained, That all dogs brought to such place by the City Bailiffs, or such persons as may be authorized by the Mayor, shall be confined for twenty-four hours, unless sooner claimed by the owner or owners thereof; and all dogs not claimed within twenty-four hours shall be put to death by such persons as the Mayor may appoint for that purpose. Dogs confined and put to death.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted and ordained, That every City Bailiff, or other person authorized by the Mayor, as above directed, shall, on delivery, receive one dollar for his trouble; and every person claiming a dog shall be required to pay the sum of five dollars before such dog shall be delivered to him or her, and if he or she refuse to pay the same, such dog shall be put to death at the end of the said twenty-four hours. One dollar for every dog brought to the depot.
Persons claiming, to pay $5.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted and ordained, That all dogs found going at large, without being muzzled as aforesaid, from the first day of June until the first day of October in each and every year, shall be dealt with as hereinbefore The Mayor to issue proclamation.
